EXPORT CODING

1 PURPOSE

- a) The purpose of coding export declarations is to assist SARS to compile the trade statistics for South Africa, as accurately as possible. The correct code(s) must be reflected on the goods declaration.
- b) Previously, items being exported at no charge or free of charge and where no foreign proceeds accrued to South Africa were required by SARS in the Export Coding Policy to be coded 2. United Nations (UN) International Merchandise Trade Statistics (IMTS) Manual however recommends that all goods which add to or subtract from the stock of material resources of a country by entering (imports) or leaving (exports) its economic territory must be recorded in trade statistics, regardless of flow of funds.

2 CODE 1

- a) All goods coded 1 will be included in the trade statistics of South Africa.
- b) Transactions not included in code 2 below must be coded 1. This is regardless of whether it is exported at no charge or free of charge and whether foreign currency will accrue to South Africa or not.

3 CODE 2

- a) Code 2 means that these transactions will not be included in the trade statistics of South Africa.
- b) The following goods must be coded 2:
 - i) Diplomatic goods (including Embassies, Consulates, Department of Foreign Affairs and High Commissions);
 - ii) Goods originally exported and returned (re-exported) to the exporter for repair under warranty or guarantee;
 - iii) Goods sent abroad for processing, modification or evaluation provided they are exported under customs and excise supervision;
 - iv) Vehicles, boats and other sporting goods imported on a temporary basis to participate in sporting events and then to be exported again (including birds, horses, etc.);
 - v) Goods imported on a temporary basis (free of charge) and after a period of time will be returned to the owner, with no funds being resubmitted to South Africa;
 - vi) Goods temporarily exported for processing, repair cleaning or reconditioning provided no change of ownership takes place;
 - vii) If registration of goods for re-importation (DA 65) was produced;
 - viii) Goods for display or use as exhibitions, demonstrations, fairs, meetings and similar events;
 - ix) Commercial samples owned locally and exported for the purposes of being shown or demonstrated overseas, for the soliciting of order for goods to be supplied from South Africa;
 - x) Goods exported as samples clearly marked as samples-not for resale;
 - xi) Postcards and other mail matter (including other printed matter of no commercial value, trade-advertising materials, cut samples, etc.);
 - xii) Moulds temporarily imported for use and then exported;
